

DAILY CANDY kids

February 25, 2010 | Kids Everywhere

Carry On

SoYoung Mother Cooler and Lunch Bags

There's no such thing as a free lunch. Just ask the cafeteria worker who got a handful of ABC gum when your kid tried to pay for a sandwich.

They'll be right on the money with SoYoung Mother lunch and cooler bags. The new helpers created by a Toronto mom can be carried like shoulder or messenger bags; the lunch bag can be worn backpack style or snapped to a stroller.

Made from sturdy laminated linen (just swipe away jelly stains) with insulated, silver-lined interiors (bye-bye warm juice boxes), the bags are printed with simple designs, like a rocket, airplane, giraffe, dandelions, or birds.

And because they replace brown bags, you cut waste — and save a buck in the process.

Ch-ching.

Available online at soyoungmother.com.